"... absolutely riveting!"

The Los Angeles Times

"I thought it was unbelievably fabulous. The whole thing was fantastic. It was so grand and so amazing. I want to see it again!"

Pamela Keech, Executive Director

"We have had more phone calls from happy, enthusiastic audience members about Vox Lumiere-The Hunchback of Notre Dame than any other show I can remember! The show was a real audience-pleaser, and people can't stop talking about it. We're looking forward to having them back."

William "Woody" Wood, Executive Director
Alberta Bair Theater, Billings, Montana

"The show was just SUPER!!!"

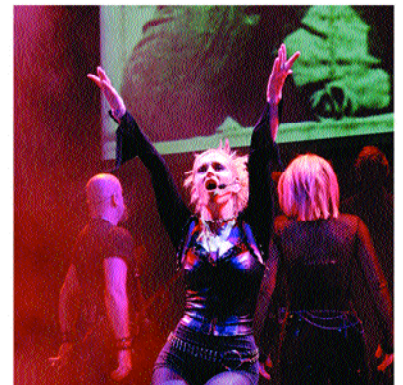

Even the seniors, who come to "check it out" with every intention of leaving at intermission---or before---stayed to the end. Everyone loved the score because it was melodic and not too loud. It was edited so cleverly and made an evening for all ages to enjoy. You should be proud to have them on your roster!!!"

Diane Ernst, Director, Lange Trust of Sandusky Library
The Sandusky State Theatre, Sandusky, OH

"It's exciting! It's a new style of theater. It's sort of like Cirque du Soleil, Vox is hard to pigeon-hole. Vox Lumiere has it's own entity, its own style."

Jesse Dinkel, Assoc. Producer
Theatrical Arts International
California Theater, San Bernardino, CA

"You single-handedly brought this amazing new audience to our theater. I don't think many of these kids had ever been to the theater before Vox Lumiere – now they're lined up down the block. We can't wait for you to come back!"

Renae Zappa, Marketing Director
The Prince Music Theater
Philadelphia, PA

"Vox Lumiere worked beautifully in our casino. It really made a great night out for anyone. Our audiences loved it!"
